

THIRD: That the said William Henry Giles was predeceased by three (3) sons, namely: Richard Giles, Sam Giles and James Giles, who died unmarried and without children.

FOURTH: The Petitioner avers and alleges that upon the death of the said William Henry Giles, the above described real estate vested, by intestate succession, unto the aforesaid Nellie Nightingale Giles and the six (6) surviving children.

FIFTH: That Nellie Nightingale Giles, grandmother of the Petitioner, died intestate on or about the year 1946, survived by Alice Giles Jones, Grace Giles Weedon, Charles Henry Giles, Mary Elizabeth Giles, Stella Giles Morgan and Ethel Giles, heirs at law.

SIXTH: That subsequent to the death of Nellie Nightingale Giles, Charles Henry Giles, Mary Elizabeth Giles, Stella Giles Morgan and Ethel Giles died intestate, none of whom were survived by their spouses, but were survived by children now living, as follows:

Charles Henry Giles, five (5) children: James Giles, Henry Giles, George Gilbert Giles (the Petitioner), Maxine Giles Jackson and John R. Giles;

Mary Elizabeth Giles, one (1) child: John Giles;

Stella Giles Morgan, five (5) children: Edna Jones, Arwilder Morgan Furr, Gilmore Morgan, Ethel Morgan Spencer and Junior Morgan; and

Ethel Giles, one (1) child: Catherine Fisher.

SEVENTH: That the Petitioner alleges and avers that title to the subject property is now vested as follows:

Alice Giles Jones: a one-sixth (1/6) interest;

Grace Giles Weedon: a one-sixth (1/6) interest;

Children of Charles Henry Giles: a one-thirtieth (1/30) interest each;

Child of Mary Elizabeth Giles: a one-sixth (1/6) interest;

Children of Stella Giles Morgan: a one-thirtieth (1/30) interest each; and